

CBC news in review (Series)

CBC broadcast journalism series based on Canadian current events and also global involvement. Eight one hour programs in February, March, April, May, September, October, November, December, usually covering four news reports per program per year. Some special reports are tied to series title for access purposes.

For descriptions see individual titles:
Fashion and the dangerously thin
[087061]

Fashion and the dangerously thin

S 13 min CA 2007 CBC
Non-Broadcast Sales

CBC news in review (Series) - This program examines the increasingly prevalent issue of eating disorders, in particular the need to be very thin with its resulting negative health consequences. Investigates whether the fashion world with its ultra thin models is having a negative influence on our perception of the ideal weight - Guide p5.

Fashion - Psychological aspects;
[zz] Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.; Eating disorders;
Body image; Models (Persons)

Karen Kain, prima ballerina [electronic resource] / Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

087158 DW SA 2008

This CBC Archives Web site about Karen Kain presents a list of eleven streaming media (audio or video) clips from CBC Radio and CBC Television dating from 1971 to 1996. Includes a link to related classroom activities resources for educators. 1. "The pains of ballet" (10:37) – 2. "Kain draws acclaim abroad" (5:05) – 3. "The pains of ballet" (10:37) – 4. "Media crowds outside Kain's wedding" (1:35) – 5. "Not just a ballerina" (6:05) – 6. "Ballet's ups and downs" (17:13) – 7. "Dancers go toe to toe with Mike Harris" (0:50) – 8. "Swan song" (0:58) – 9. "Stepping up to the top job" (10:18) – 10. "How to raise a ballerina" (6:23) – 11. "Kain says she was 'a perfectionist'" (5:44) - archives.cbc.ca

Kain, Karen.; [zz] Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.;
Ballerinas - Canada - Biography