

The Arts: Grade 10 - Dramatic Arts - Analysis

Musical magic : Gilbert and Sullivan in Stratford

045329 VH

IS 58 min 1984 McIntyre Media
This exhilarating film shows celebrated stage director/choreographer, Brian Macdonald rehearsing Canada's premier operetta company in three Gilbert and Sullivan comic operettas: "The Mikado", "The Gondoliers", and "Iolanthe". Company members, who are trained actors and/or singers, must not only learn to dance, but also have to step lively to keep pace. The video includes highlights from the performances of all three productions, as well as scenes from a gala performance at London's refurbished Old Vic. All the hard work, sweat and repetition to produce the onstage magic is made abundantly clear.

Operetta; Stratford Festival (Ont.);
Musicals - Ontario; Theater -
Production and direction

(03:53) – 14. "Apprentice actress Roberta Maxwell" (05:00) – 15. "Hume Cronyn on Stratford" (02:09) – 16. "The one million mark" (00:32) – 17. "Stratford presents Romeo and Juliet" (02:20) – 18. "Stratford celebrates 40 years" (19:01) – 19. "Stratford accents" (06:14) - archives.cbc.ca

[zz] Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.; Stratford Festival (Ont.); Theater

Shakespeare, breathing life into text / Classroom Video presents ; [producer, Barbara Peters ; director, Arthur Tanaka]

046409 VH

S 17 min 2001 Distribution Access
David Ritchie, a theatre director demonstrates how an actor's dramatic portrayal of a scene in a Shakespeare play directly changes the performance impression. This presentation focuses on two scenes from Shakespeare's Hamlet - container.

[zz] Ritchie, David.; Shakespeare, William, 1564-1616. Hamlet; [zz] Tanaka, Arthur.; Shakespeare, William, 1564-1616 - Technique; Shakespeare, William, 1564-1616 - Dramatic production

The Stratford Festival [electronic resource] : the first 50 years / Canadian Broadcasting Corporation.

087230 DW

SA 2009
This CBC Archives Web site about the Stratford Festival of Canada presents a list of nineteen streaming media (audio or video) clips from CBC Radio and CBC Television dating from 1953 to 2002. Includes a link to related classroom activities and resources for educators. 1. "Opening night: A new age for Canadian theatre" (11:57) – 2. "Setting the stage" (05:29) – 3. "Behind the scenes" (11:00) – 4. "Christopher Plummer: Hop-a-long Hamlet" (04:49) – 5. "Shakespeare is dug by the craziest of cats" (05:48) – 6. "Remembering Tyrone Guthrie" (01:57) – 7. "Wherefore art thou Canadian directors?" (09:55) – 8. "A new generation: Colm Feore" (10:46) – 9. "Stratford conquers Hollywood" (01:58) – 10. "Balancing the books" (04:36) – 11. "Three Canadian Hamlets" (07:27) – 12. "Fiftieth Anniversary" (06:23) – 13. "The early days" (03:53) – 13. "The early days"